Dear Parent, Guardians, & Caregivers,

As the 2018 - 2019 school year draws to a conclusion, Keystone Elementary School will be sponsoring special events for all grades. In keeping with the SWPBIS program, we would like to continue to reinforce the behavior expectations that have been in place.

Therefore, in order to participate in these special events, students must conduct themselves within the expected behavior guidelines and continue to meet the academic requirements in all subjects.

Hence, any student that violates the expected behavior guidelines or does not meet the academic requirements, will not be permitted to participate in these special events, such as Field Day, Spirit Day, the 5th grade dance, field trips, picnics, or any event that will take place between now and June 14.

Any student that receives an In School Suspension (ISS) or Out of School Suspension (OSS) beginning today, Tuesday, May 7, 2019 will be excluded from participation in the upcoming grade/school event. If a student is in ISS or OSS on Monday, May 6, 2019, that student will be on probation until they return to their regular schedule. Upon their return to their normal schedule, they will be expected to meet the behavior guidelines.

For clarification of the SWPBIS expectations, please refer to the following pages in the Student Handbook that can be accessed on the BTSD website. Go to schools, click on schools, click on Keystone, click on Parents, click on Handbooks/Code of Conduct, click on Elementary Handbook Revised 2018 - 2019.

Sincerely,
Keystone Elementary School Administration.
